LEGALLY BLONDE
By Laurence O’Keefe, Nell Benjamin, and Heather Hach
Spring / Summer 2024

WHO?
Producer: Abby Asmuth
Director: Alastair Rao
Stage Manager: Naomi Schwartzburt
Music Director: Sophie Dvorak
Choreographers: Amara Neal & Thomas Kannam
Preferred Contact Email: comm@yaledramat.org

WHAT?
The Show: Elle Woods appears to have it all. Her life is turned upside down when her boyfriend Warner dumps her so he can attend Harvard Law. Elle ingeniously charms her way into the prestigious law school, and along the way, learns the importance of being true to herself. Action-packed and exploding with memorable songs and dynamic dances — this musical is so much fun, it should be illegal!

Commencement: In the 10 days between the end of finals period and Yale’s Commencement ceremony, the Dramat puts up a musical in the University Theater, the largest theater on Yale’s campus. We all live together on Old Campus and get to spend time rehearsing and putting up a show without the stress of classes. Think of it as theater camp for college kids — it’s a great way to spend time with friends and meet new people.

WHEN?
Date of First Rehearsal: No earlier than March 25th
Preposterous Day (When people move to Old Campus): May 9th
Tech Week Dates: May 13-16th
Performance Dates: May 17-19th
Commencement Period Dates: May 9th-20th
Overall Dates (First Rehearsal to Last Performance): March 25-May 20 (strike!)
TIME COMMITMENT

Before Commencement Period (music and choreography rehearsals):
For Elle, Emmett, Warner, and Delta Nus: Up to 6-8 hours a week (varies per week)
For all other roles: Up to 2-5 hours a week (varies per week)

During Commencement Period (all blocking, music reviews, more choreography rehearsals, tech):
6-10 hours a day (regardless of role)
<3333 But it’s so fun! (we will take breaks!)

CONTENT WARNINGS

Staged intimacy, depictions of sexual harassment and non-consensual intimacy

AUDITION EXPECTATIONS

Audition Information Session: Sunday, February 18th at 3pm in WLH 119

This information session is completely optional, but is a great opportunity to ask us any questions about the audition process for this musical. We especially recommend coming if this is your first time auditioning. Attendance at this info session will not impact any casting decisions.

In-Person Auditions

How to Sign Up

For a vocal audition, please sign up for a 10-minute slot on our Yale College Arts page and select “Audition for Legally Blonde.” Please note that you must be signed into your Yale College Arts account in order to sign up for an audition slot.

For a dance call, please sign up for a 75-minute dance call using this SignUpGenius. All dance calls are capped at 30, but if no slots work for you, please contact Naomi (naomi.schwartzburt@yale.edu).

Prior to your audition, please fill out this audition form and this optional demographic form which is anonymous and does not impact casting and will not be seen by members of the casting team. Please fill out the audition form even if you are submitting a self-tape.

What to Prepare

Vocal Audition:
Prepare a 32-bar cut (~90 seconds) of a musical theater song of your choosing. Memorization is not required. We will then give notes and ask you to perform the song again. There will be time for a vocal warm-up upon arrival.

If you are unsure what song to prepare, please refer to the end of this audition packet for a list of suggestions, as well as sheet music and recordings.
If you would like to be accompanied at your audition, please bring a printed copy of your sheet music or email a PDF to our music director Sophie at sophie.dvorak@yale.edu. If you would like assistance with finding sheet music, please reach out to Sophie at least 24 hours before your audition.

Dance Call:
The dance call, like much of Legally Blonde, will be very high-energy, performance-based, and cheerleading-inspired. We are looking for athletic dancers who focus on being controlled and hitting sharp images. But most of all, dancers who can lean into the camp and have fun with the choreography (because it is fun)! Sell it!

The 75 minute dance call will consist of a short warm up, us teaching the combination to the whole group, and eventually seeing small groups perform. You can find a walkthrough of the choreography here and the full dance here. These videos are for those of you who are sending a self-tape or simply if you want to get a vibe of the choreo. You do not need to learn the dance ahead of time; we encourage you to just bring yourself and your energy and learn with us in the moment!

Self-Tape Option

Vocal Audition:
Record yourself performing a 32-bar cut (~90 seconds) of a musical theater song of your choosing. Memorization is not required. You can sing a capella or perform along to a karaoke track.

If you are unsure what song to prepare, please refer to the end of this audition packet for a list of suggestions, as well as sheet music and recordings.

Name your recording “[YOUR NAME]_[LEGALLY BLONDE]_[VOCAL]” and submit on this google form. Please reach out to Naomi at naomi.schwartzburt@yale.edu if you are experiencing any difficulties naming or uploading your file.

Callbacks
You’ll hear back about callbacks by the end of day 2/28. We will provide relevant callback materials via email! There will be both group and individual callbacks. Callbacks will be held March 1-3, and specific times and locations will be provided in the email notifying auditionees of their callback.

Please know if you don’t receive a callback, it does not mean we aren’t interested in casting you!

Casting Calls
We intend to make casting calls on Wednesday, March 6th. There is a section on the audition form inquiring about your availability that day, which will be used to create a schedule for when during the day casting calls will be made. To the best of our ability, we hope to follow a traditional casting cycle model (YDC approved!). We will keep all auditionees updated as we learn more about when calls will start and when you should have your phones nearby.

Notes on Casting
Commencement is a fantastic opportunity to bring people from across Yale’s campus together. We’re equally excited to see auditionees who have done lots of theatre at Yale and those who have yet to be in a Yale show! What’s important to our team is what you bring to this audition room — your preparation and willingness to try new things.

Please note that availability to rehearse before commencement will be considered in our casting process. We want to make this as smooth a process as possible, and having proper time to rehearse is absolutely integral to making this show the best that it can be.

Also note that one member of the Dramat Board (either Policy Director - AJ Walker, Vice President - Meridian Monthly, or Outreach Coordinator - Maya Evans) will be present at all auditions and callbacks to ensure that auditionees are treated fairly and that all participants follow Dramat Guidelines. They won’t be evaluating your audition!

Note on Accessibility
The Dramat is committed to accommodating any access needs; please do not hesitate to reach out to comm@yaledramat.org with any questions or concerns regarding accessibility.
Prior to the commencement period, we will be rehearsing all music and some choreography. We expect actors to be familiar with their music before coming to rehearsal and to utilize the resources provided to them ahead of time. During the semester, we expect up to 6-8 hours a week (varies per week) of rehearsing for Elle, Emmett, Warner, and the Delta Nus. For all other roles, we expect 2-5 hours a week (varies per week). We ask that you be mindful of your other time commitments this semester. Given the short timeline of the commencement period itself, it will be very important that all actors dedicate time to work on any material from choreography and music rehearsals on their own time. The cast should be off-book by the start of the commencement period!

We will spend most of the days leading up to the Commencement performances rehearsing in order to stage a successful musical on a short 10-day timeline. Actors should come to rehearsals on time and be focused while we are working. Additionally, all members of the cast should be treated with equal respect, regardless of the size of their role. In addition to being kind to each other, we also expect actors to be kind and respectful to the production team. Given the intensity of rehearsals during this 10-day period, we will strongly enforce breaks in the rehearsal room.

Actors should communicate any conflicts with stage management. The stage manager will also play an active role in acting as a liaison for actors to talk to if they feel that they’re being harmed, unheard, or otherwise feel unable to communicate a problem to the director. To that end, we also hope to facilitate an open line of communication between actors and the producer in case they want or need a second advocate outside of the rehearsal room.
We encourage actors of all gender, racial, and ethnic identities to audition for all roles.

CHARACTER BREAKDOWN

This instance of intimacy constitutes as sexual harassment and is non-consensual within the plot.
MEET THE TEAM

PRODUCER: Abby Asmuth (she/her)

JE ’26, English

Abby couldn’t be more excited to be putting on this show! Some favorite Yale credits include Afterparty, 10:59, Crush...ed, and Little Women. Outside of theater, she also writes and produces film, edits for WKND, and advises for Matriculate. As Legally Blonde’s producer, she’s the primary contact point for any questions you may have about the audition process — please feel free to reach out with any and all questions at comm@yaledramat.org!

Qualifications include: “So Much Better” as #24 on her 2023 Music Replay

DIRECTOR: Alastair Rao (he/him)

Saybrook ’26, History

Alastair cannot express how excited he is to work with everyone to build the world of Legally Blonde. On campus, he’s worked on shows like Godspell, The Last Five Years, and delicacy of a puffin heart. Outside of theatre, you can find him volunteering with Yale Dems or pretending to study in the Elm. He already wants to be your friend!

Qualifications include: elementary and middle school obsession with this show (would love to talk about MTV’s The Search for Elle Woods with you)

STAGE MANAGER: Naomi Schwartzburt (any)

Pauli Murray ’24, TDPS & Astronomy

Despite owning zero pink clothing, Naomi is seriously excited to be stage managing commencement, is getting whipped into shape as you read this, and is positive that Legally Blonde will be a blast! At Yale, they have stage managed shows including Great Comet and Girls Aren’t Funny, and they served on the board of the YDC for two years as VP and Casting Cycle Coordinator. They are thrilled to cap off their Yale theater career with one final musical.

Qualifications include: is kenough
MUSIC DIRECTOR: Sophie Dvorak (she/they)
TC ‘25, Music

Sophie is beyond thrilled to be on the team of Legally Blonde! On campus, Sophie can be found in rehearsal for various endeavors, from the Yale Glee Club to the Opera Theatre of Yale College. Favorite on-campus productions include Godspell and West Side Story. She can’t wait to get to know you all in the audition room, and is ready to get “serious” about this production.

Qualifications include: took the LSAT

CHOREOGRAPHER: Thomas Kannam (they/them)
Hopper ’26, TDPS & ER&M

Thomas is extremely excited to be co-choreographing this show! On campus they have been involved in many undergraduate productions as a performer, stage manager, and choreographer. They also work at the AACC (go asians!) and the Hopper College Aide’s Office (go hop!)

Qualifications include: Thomas’ 7th grade production of Legally Blonde Jr.

CHOREOGRAPHER: Amara Neal (she/her)
Hopper ’26, Economics & TDPS

Amara is so excited to be a part of this show! Some of her most recent projects include performing in The Colored Museum and choreographing for West Side Story. On campus, she also does comedy, consulting, and Harvest (apply to be a leader!).

Qualifications include: No hard skills but many soft skills (including enthusiasm and drive)

A DRAMAT POLICY REPRESENTATIVE:

One member of the Dramat Board (either Policy Director - AJ Walker, Vice President - Meridian Monthly, or Outreach Coordinator - Maya Evans) will be present at all auditions and callbacks to ensure that auditionees are treated fairly and that all participants follow Dramat Guidelines. They won’t be evaluating your audition!
If you have any questions for the policy team, don’t hesitate to reach out:

AJ Walker | policy@yaledramat.org | (646) 630-3446

Meridian Monthly | vp@yaledramat.org | (713) 325-3630

Maya Evans | outreach@yaledramat.org | (347) 405-3772
